

Positive Youth Foundation Privacy Notice – MyCoventry Project.

Positive Youth Foundation complies with the Data Protection Act and GDPR law and is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). This Privacy Notice explains how, as Data Processors, on behalf of Coventry City Council (Data Controller), we will use your personal information, what for, and who we will share it with as part of the MyCoventry Project.

Why we collect Personal Data about you

Your personal information is collected when you sign up for the MyCoventry Project so that we can offer you services and support across three (3) key activity areas (community and social links, language and learning, employment and skills) delivered through the project that enables you to integrate into Coventry.

We use this information to:

- Allow Coventry City Council Migration Team and its partners to fulfil its task of integration services and support
- Decide who is eligible to take part and be supported in the project
- Provide you with services you need to aid your integration into Coventry
- Match your needs with project activities and offer further advice and guidance
- Help us to develop and improve our services
- Complete reports for the Accountable Body, the Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund (AMIF) and the UK Responsible Authority (UKRA).

Our lawful basis for processing personal data is Consent.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Ask to see the personal information we hold about you
- Withdraw consent (see below)
- Ask us to change information we hold about you if it is wrong
- Ask us to delete information we hold about you
- Ask us to limit the way we use your personal information
- Data portability (have your data transferred to another authority)
- Complain to the Information Commissioner's Office

To exercise any of these rights please contact Positive Youth Foundation via E-mail: info@positiveyouthfoundation.org

Withdrawal of Consent

Where personal data is processed on the basis of consent, you will have the right to withdraw that consent. However, Positive Youth Foundation process personal data when it is necessary to do so in order to comply with our legal obligations and to enable us to perform tasks carried out in the public interest.

Complaints

You have the right to submit a complaint if you are unhappy with the way your request is handled or disagree with a decision made by the council regarding your data. In these circumstances you can contact the Data Protection Team (DPO) and request a review of the decision: info@positiveyouthfoundation.org Telephone: 02476158550

If you are not satisfied with any outcome from the DPO you may wish to apply to the Information Commissioners Office at:
