

The Opportunity - Go Foleshill Programme

We are pleased to announce new funding opportunities to deliver youth programmes across Foleshill. The funding will support young people to access weekly sessions in a safe space to support health inequalities and give them more opportunities for regular sessions supporting physical, emotional, and mental wellbeing.

The 2023 Go Foleshill Commissions are made possible through funding from Sport England, by Coventry City Council, and delivered by Positive Youth Foundation. We invite proposals up to the value of £2,000 per organisation.

The Proposal

We are looking for organisations with an interest in supporting a more sustainable and better future for Foleshill's young people.

PYF is looking to work with organisations based in Coventry that meet the following criteria:

- Embedded into the work of the CYP
- Successful experience of working with vulnerable young people who are identified as being in need of support, including those who now find themselves at risk of/ are NEET, risk of exploitation, poor health outcomes.
- Have a positive and collaborative mindset and experience in working successfully on programmes with multiple partners.
- Have a strong project management and an outcomes-led approach to work, including data collection and analysis.
- A clear neighbourhood/ community footprint in Coventry.
